~ doors open 7pm for 7.30 start ~

The Royal Air Force Battle of Britain Memorial Flight is a national institution dedicated to maintaining ageing aircraft in a modern world – a familiar concept to a classic car owner! The latest lecture in the MGB Register series welcomes Warrant Office Kevin Ball, Senior Engineering Officer for the RAF BBMF who will describe the history and organisation of the Flight which consist of Spitfires, Hurricane, Lancaster & Dakota aeroplanes focusing on the work carried out to keep these iconic aircraft flying.

He will outline problems that occur operating ageing aircraft in a modern military airworthiness environment and give an insight into the aircraft's safety case.

Kevin joined the RAF in 1980 and in over 33 years service he has gained a huge amount of experience, come and hear his fascinating stories.

Go to www.mgb-register.org to book on-line or complete the form below and send to the address shown along with a cheque made payable to MGCC MGB REGISTER.
