

Classics on the Common 2012 – a gloriously warm day and an interesting range of classics on display

Common - by 7pm the green area in the foreground was full of classic cars.

Spectators outside the Harpenden Arms watch the classics stream by to the Common

The range of cars on display was extraordinary.

David Heaton's recently acquired MGB GT V8.

Classics on the Common 2012 – a gloriously warm day and an interesting range of classics on display

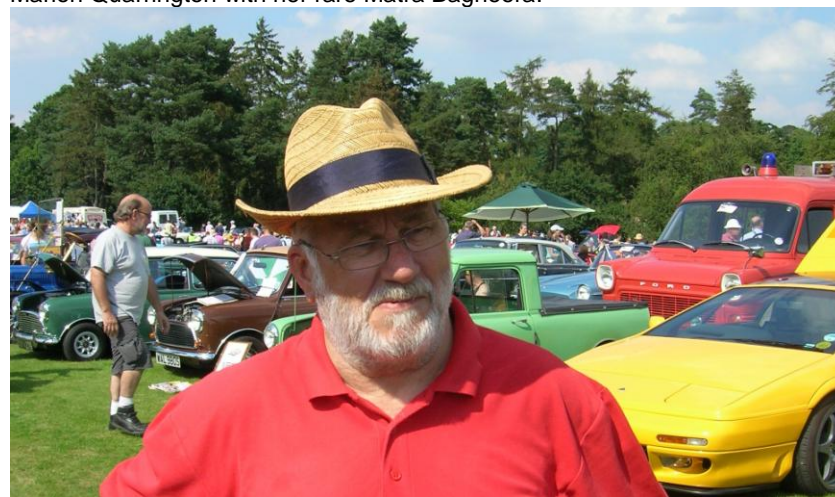

John Bolt relaxes by his RV8

Marion Quarrington with her rare Matra Bagheera.

Rob Forbes' good looking V8 Roadster.

Tony Lake was there with his MGB GT V8.

Classics on the Common 2012 – a gloriously warm day and an interesting range of classics on display

Rob Scarborough's MGBGT V8 in Sebring style.

Views across the Common – what a range of classics.

Ian Quarrington was enjoying the beautiful weather on the Common.

A party atmosphere had set in by the time tea arrived!