

Le Mans Classic 2012 – more photos from Franck Morand

Tony Lake's neat MGBGT V8 parked up at le Mans.

Gerry and Iris Revens live in France, in a little village in Indre departement exactly, who came with their MGBGT V8, Glacier White 1270.

Franck Morand's MGBGT V8 in Mirage (originally Glacier White)

Le Mans Classic 2012 – more photos from Franck Morand

Sebring replica seen at the Le Mans Classic 2012.

Le Mans Classic 2012 – more photos from Franck Morand

MGTC belongs to Christian Lissot, ex vice President of MG Club de France, who used to have an MGRV8 that he registered in France, converted to LHD and later sold to a member.

Z Magnette with a V8 conversion! – now seemingly on UK plates? Franck says “it was stunning and seemed to be superbly finished too.”

Le Mans Classic 2012 – more photos from Franck Morand

French Costello MGBGT V8 seen at Le Mans Classic 2012 – as it had no bonnet bulge Franck was curious to see how the carburettor set up under the bonnet.

