

Scenes from the Goodwood Revival 2011

Hawker Fury single seat fighter – a complete restoration soon to take to the air.

Replica of the Supermarine Spitfire prototype K5054 on display for the 70th anniversary at the Goodwood Revival.

Supermarine seaplane competed in the Schneider Trophy competition in the late 1930s and was the inspiration for the Supermarine Spitfire.

Scenes from the Goodwood Revival 2011

Hunting Percival Provost Trainer.

ME109 built in Spain in 1949

De Havilland Dove was working hard giving pleasure flights. The Dove was a successful British monoplane short-haul airliner which first flew in August 1945 and was the successor to the biplane de Havilland Dragon Rapide series.

Scenes from the Goodwood Revival 2011

UK's last remaining airworthy B-17 Flying Fortress aircraft, Sally B, from Duxford landed over Lavant Corner on Thursday afternoon and parked up in the aircraft display area.

