

Confusion over an RV8 for sale on eBay clarified

Following the appearance of an eBay advert for an early RV8 for sale in September 2010, George Wilder has cleared up the trader's confusion over which RV8 it has for sale!

The car is in fact Le Mans Green 0027 and not "Green 0029" as the trader had indicated. If you offer to buy it at the "Woodcote Green" price they may not know one "Green" RV8 from another. The car is ADD506 first registered to Rover Special Products and used as a dealer demonstration car which was seen on a run from Abingdon to Gaydon in 1993.

Dear georgew251,

Hi, you are quite correct. Finger trouble on my part. I have revised the listing.

Dear ragtops-and-runabouts-ltd,

All the books on RV8s say that K19 MGR is vin 900027
not 900029.

Is this the correct vin for the car?
