Serving a 5 course set menu with plenty of variety to suit all tastes including vegetarian, cost £20/head.

Cash Bar.

Covered Secure Parking: Swan Street, about a 7 min walk away.

Open Parking: Adjacent to St John's Street or St Peter's Way, shown as A5123 on the map, both about a 5 minutes walk from Bridge Street.

Accommodation: The Ibis Hotel in Mairfair offers rooms at £35, hot breakfast at £6.95 and a £5.50 deal overnight in the covered car park in the Sol Centre which has an entrance straight into the hotel lobby. www.ibishotel.com or call 01604 608900 No group rate available, book on line for the £35 rate. About a 10min walk to Bridge Street, or taxi company next door to hotel entrance.

Travel Lodge has just refurbished the old Grand Hotel in Gold Street. Rooms at £29, cold breakfast from a machine at £4.95. No group rate available, book on line. www.travellodge.co.uk No car parking, same covered parking at either Sol Centre or Swan Street. This hotel is just round the corner from Bridge Street.

There are plenty of hotels in the immediate Northampton area but the two mentioned here are closest to the dinner venue.

Finding the Royal Bengal: Enter NN1 1NS, the restaurant post code, into www.streetmap.co.uk to find the restaurant, hotels and parking.

Stoneleigh is about an hour away, a good chance to use the M45, the quietest motorway in England. Only two lanes but ideal for land speed record attempts.
