

V8 Somerset Tour in 1997

Royal Chase Hotel below in the Saxon hill-town of Shaftesbury in Dorset – above the famous Gold Hill seen in the Hovis adverts.

Sue & Peter Beadle organized the tour.

Visiting Wookey Hole underground

Umbrellas out, walking up to the entrance of Wookey Holes.

Wells Cathedral built entirely in the Gothic style, featuring iconic 14th-century scissor arches, a massive West Front with hundreds of medieval sculptures, and the intricate Jesse Window.

Radstock rural farm

Yeovilton Fleet Air Arm museum with below a Concorde and Sea Harrier on display.

David Biddle on the A303 in his rubber bumper MGBGTV8

Barrow Hill cider apple farm & cider brandy too.

The routes through the countryside were enjoyable.

Walter and Brigitte Kallenberg over from Germany – Walter emerges with their cider purchases!

Barrington Court – a National Trust property

